

Léa Sefsaf

graphic design student

I'm a French graphic design student from Toulouse, looking for an internship. I have studied print graphic design but i'd like to vary my process. I'm deeply influenced by fashion and textile design, creations involving photography and i like to combine many techniques to create something unique and relevant. I'm dynamic, spontaneous and ready to work hard !

education

2016-2018

Preparing a master Degree
with a major in graphic design

Les Arènes School - Toulouse - FR

2014-2016

A two-year higher Degree
in print graphic design

Les Arènes School - Toulouse - FR

2013-2014

Foundation Year in Applied Arts

Léonard de Vinci School, Villefontaine - FR

2013

A-Level in litterature
option art, with honors

Honoré d'Urfé Highschool - Saint-Etienne - FR

experience

2016: November > December

Internship - IPN (a collective) *for the exhibition "quoi noir lignes ?"

graphic work for the event, montage, organization, photography of the exhibition
Toulouse - FR*

March 2016

Workshop - Willy Muller

Typography & éditorial work

2015: June > July

Internship - Lélia Withnell

*freelance graphic designer
Lyon - FR*

Oct. 2014 - one week

Work-shadowing - IGC

*Printing House
Saint-Etienne - FR*

interests

- doing hatha yoga
- playing the piano
- listening to music
- cooking comfort food
- fashion and textile design / patterns
- everything involving cheese & red wine

skills

French (native)
English (fluent)
German (basic level)

Illustrator
Indesign
Photoshop
Html / CSS

Silk-screen printing
Risography